Christi Meril is a Dallas-based contemporary artist creating work on canvas and wood.

In expressionistic style, using mediums such as oil, acrylic, paper & resin she creates vibrant fine art as she draws upon personal experiences & emotions. Her creativity is sparked most when she is close to either skyscrapers or mountain peaks. In her work, you will see the influences of cityscapes and landscapes as she pours a bit of her soul into every piece.

Christi accepts commissions and loves working with clients to create work for any space whether residential, commercial or hospitality spaces.

Her studio and gallery space are located at the ALG Collective, 1302 Dragon Street, Dallas, Texas in one of the city's most colorful neighborhoods, the Dallas Design District.
